

ASE proudly announces the Co-Sponsors for the 2009-2010 Conference Series.

ASE is honored to have the co-sponsorship of the following organizations and thank each for their continued support to the ASE Professional Development Series.

- Cambium Learning: Kurzweil, IntelliTools, Stages & Sopris West
- Cambridge College
- Centris Group
- eSped
- Lincoln Learning Solutions
- Murphy, Lamere, and Murphy
- New England Center for Children
- Perkins School for the Blind
- Public Consulting Group

Each organization provides honorable, credible and effective expertise in their field and supportive capacities for school districts and student with disabilities. We thank them for their ongoing support and commitment to the ASE Professional Development Series.

A very special thanks to: Nancy Avery and Cindy Kerrigan (Cambium Learning), Dr. Joanne Testaverde, Acting Dean (Cambridge College), Andrew Horelick (Centris Group), George Dhionis & Mark Ventri (eSped), Jean Welsh (Lincoln Learning Solutions, LLC), Mary-Joanne Reedy, Esq. (Murphy Lamere Murphy, P.C.), Amy Geckler (New England Center for Children), Christopher Underwood and Steve Rothstein (Perkins School for the Blind), Lorraine McLaughlin and Peter Marshall, (Public Consulting Group, Inc.), and the Board of Directors and/or partners of each organization for their efforts in making this conference possible.

October 30, 2009