

INTERNAL POSTING
Location: E. Longmeadow and Concord
Date: 5/2/17

Adjunct Professor -Supervision and Evaluation Special Education Administrator Program

Become part of a vibrant community of world-class professionals transforming the lives of a motivated and diverse student population. A pioneer in innovative academic programs since 1897 Bay Path University is seeking an experienced adjunct faculty member for this hybrid (on-ground and online), 3 credit, graduate level, course. The class meets on Saturdays for half-day (morning or afternoon as indicated) on the following days: November 4, 2017 (morning), November 18, 2017 (afternoon), December 16, 2017 (morning), January 20, 2018 (afternoon).

This course will focus on instructional leadership in the areas of: aligning curriculum to the content frameworks, designing effective instruction, ensuring utilization of formal and informal assessment methods, providing effective supervision and evaluation oversight, and determining appropriate professional development for all staff. Course content will also include managing human resources and developing, implementing, and assessing district and school-wide improvement plans.

Qualifications: Doctorate preferred. Extensive experience in special education required. Experience teaching online preferred. Course evaluations will be requested. Previous graduate college teaching experience preferred.

Applicants for this position should submit a cover letter outlining salary requirements, resume, and contact information for four professional references. All applications should be sent electronically in MS Word format to hr@baypath.edu.

An equal opportunity employer, Bay Path University is committed to fostering diversity in its student body, faculty, and staff.